

Bio (70 words)

Archie Tulk is an emerging musical artist and composer whose creative vision moves fluidly between alternative art-pop and contemporary classical music. His music is defined by vivid, imaginative arrangements, blending intimate songwriting with the textures of acoustic and orchestral instruments, and a distinctive, colourful harmonic language. As a composer, he has been commissioned by ensembles such as Dutch National Opera & Ballet, Sydney Children's Choir and The Hague Residentie Orchestra.